HOWARD H. COURT

Born in Donaldston, Prince Edward Island on February 7, 1896, Mr. Court was educated in the local school there. After taking his Eleventh and Twelfth grades as well as his normal training at the Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown, he taught school for two years in Marshfield P. E. I. When war broke out he enlisted as a Gr. in the 20nd. Seige Battery, August 1915, and went overseas in Nov. of the same year.

After the war, Mr. Court held positions as Principal, School Inspector, and Director of

Teacher Training at the Prince of Wales College, a position he held for seven years, until he again
enlisted in the army at the outbreak of W. W. II.

During his four years in the service he attained the rank of Major.

Upon his return to Charlottetown in 1944 Mr.

Court took the position of Director of Vocational Training under the Dominion Gov't. Plan for Veteran's Training. In 1947 he came to Alberta and took up the post as Principal of Enchant School, joined the staff of Taber High as Vice Principal in 1955.

DEDICATION

Mr. H. Court

We, the classes of 1961, hereby dedicate this edition of "The Dawn" to Mr. Howard Court. Despite his many obligations and responsibilities, he has always found time not only to be an excellent Social Studies teacher, but also to be a FRIEND to everyone. His unceasing patience and sincere helpfulness has contributed greatly towards the success and happiness of our high school careers. We shall all miss him in the years to come.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"But that's my right!" How often today we hear this cry from individuals and groups, Everyone seems to be clear about what their 'rights' are -- employers, labor unions, organizations, parents, teenagers and even young children. And, undeniably, each of these has rights - 'inalienable' rights as our southern neighbors are fond of saying. A 'right' is a just and fair claim to anything whatever, either passive, as the right of possession, or active, as the right to pursue a certain course. For example, we all have the right to acquire property or the inherent right to non-interference. We have social, political and economic rights which must be consonant to the laws and customs of our country, provided these laws and customs are not repugnant to the laws of God.

And hand in hand with these rights that we all possess as an innate portion of our human existence, goes responsibility. Responsibility is the state of being answerable or accountable as a person for certain duties or trusts we have undertaken. But are people as eager or willing to bear their responsibilities as they are to enjoy their rights? Consider the student in high school. He also has a responsibility, if he takes advantage of his right to attend school, to study diligently and abide by the regulations made in the school for the purpose of creating the best available learning situation.

Consider also the citizen of a community. He too, has rights, many protected by law. What percentage of citizens however, undertake their responsibilities of being well informed on public issues, voting, running for public office, or raising their voice in community organizations? Too often people have become so used to their freedoms that they forget these can be easily lost. They are too concerned with material advancement to bother with their obligations which they must carry out if they wish to retain their freedoms. If security is the over-riding desire of an individual, let him remember that jail offers maximum security. The Soviet Union, that gigantic prison, offers its citizens maximum security at the price of personal freedoms.

So if you wish to sell your birthright of freedom for the mess of pottage we call economic security, insist on your rights while you studiously avoid your responsibility.

The intraining program got off to a late start this year due to the long caused by the construct in the new school. Even so, the participation was greater this year than last. This may be due to the fact that the first team into the old by a smally wor, by default because there wasn't room for the opposition.

I to houses were everly in the tee with the layer of ference in the point spreads being gained by refereeing and score keeping.

Volleyball was the first to be real off. Competition and only real is was keen with the red gins and putple boys being victorious. Orange house was tops in mixed volleyball action.

Bisherhall followed. Playing in the new gym proved to be a latid ap for those players who were also books arks. Noticing could tray bank the half off the certing into the basket. Gone were the cave when the could run up the wall to durk the half. Purple boys and redig ris were the least hand-capped as they were victors.

Bad those attrested text. Some of the people are still wondering where their birds flew that they are roosing on the gain hears. As yet on June 6 had intonings not been to the tea. Pring MacDonald and Joe Shavik of Purple are in the finals for the boys. Girls lave just gotten under way.

Frank Tejhar, b. c. a d Ted Nish. a, parple, are in the finals of the Ping-pong tournament. House standings to June 6 are:

1. Blue - 1245; 2. Red - 970; 3. Orange - 950; 4. Purple - 950.

A MESSAGE FROM MR. GALVIN

Students of today, and I include myself, must realize that they are, and must keep on preparing themselves to become fitting citizens in an eral whose social demands are many and preat. We must be prepared to enter, as a vital element, into a society whore two main ideologies, two main philosophical viewpoints are engaged in an invitating war for supremacy, where sole infine developments have linked together committees of people white in distoms, basic philosophies etc., where new and powerful forces have been unleashed and low must locds be controlled by a morally sound, deep-thinking, peace-loving group of people.

You the stude, is of Taber Junior High School, are preparing yourselves to become active members of just such a group of people. Many of you this year have portrayed the attitudes of persons who will become the much leeded and important contributors toward the progress and betterment of 'our way of life'. Upon you we base our hopes,
